NATURAL AWAKENING....

We, two mothers have brought the nature's caressing, peaceful touch; a pure eucalyptus fabric from nature itself to people's lives like us who see this world as their home. The unique freshness of eucalyptus, warm smile of tranquility with timeless style are now in your life!

"Natural Awakening" Home & Lifestyle Collection has been specially designed to be in every part of our lives especially for good quality sleep which is the foundation for our whole wellbeing. The collection is more absorbent than cotton, softer than silk, and fresher than linen due to the nature's pure fabric, eucalyptus.

Every piece in the collection whether bedding sets or loungewear is created to keep our cultural heritage alive and hand the elegance simplicity of traditional craftsmanship down to future generations.

We are all responsible for protecting the only home we have, the Mother Earth!

At AYSSLA, we believe nature performs major miracles for us every day and if we use its natural solutions to equip our lives and be more with less, we can protect this world for our children, grandchildren and fulfill our responsibility to them.

In the shade of the wise
eucalyptus tree,
having sweet dreams
on the bosom of nature,
the life that
our children deserve;
full of love and joy.

Welcome to Natural Awakening

AYSSLA

Our name, AYSSLA
stands for what we are made of;
a century old “Yılmazipek” heritage;
our “Love” and “Respect”
to our children and the Earth;
being competent at our work and
exerting ourselves meticulously
in order to be more with less
as we have learned from our mothers.

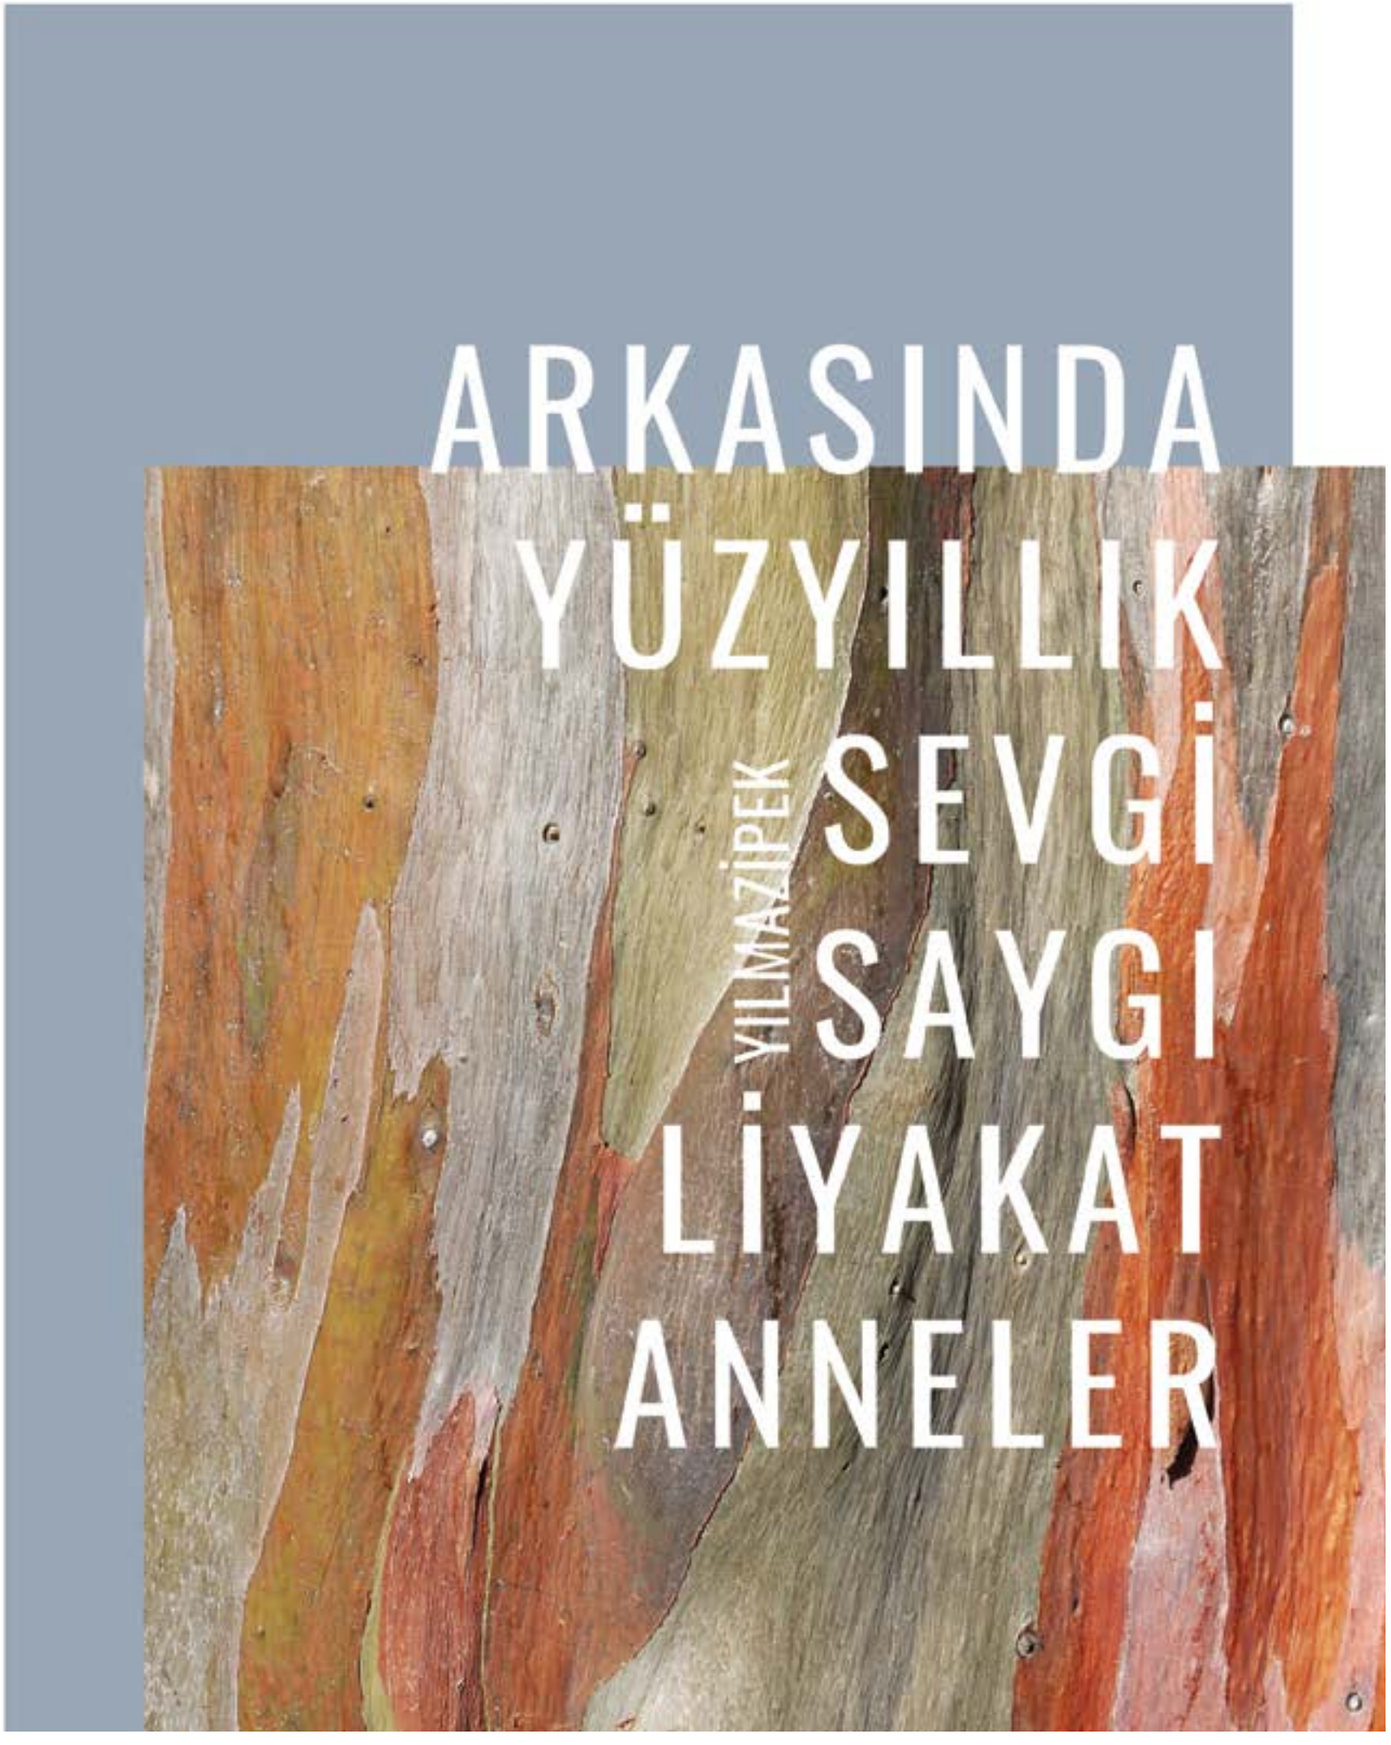
AYSSLA
FOUNDERS



The pandemic has taught us our choices matter. Human existence depends on harmony with nature. Life is very precious and it has a balance that is not static, but dynamic, that changes and moves in cycles, and brings misfortune when broken.

In the last 15 years, the fast-fashion industry has doubled production, while the time clothing is worn before it is thrown away has fallen by around 40%. When it is thrown away, 73% will be burned or buried in landfill. In order to produce one cotton t-shirt; 3000 liters of water; three years worth of drinking water is needed. Worldwide, 83 percent of tap water is contaminated by microscopic plastic fibers. We decided to do something about it because it was unbearable to think that our children, grandchildren, holding us accountable for their future.

We found the exact solution to our problem in the nature!

AYSSLA's "Natural Awakening" Home & Lifestyle Collection has been produced with the world's FIRST 100 percent Environment Friendly, Biodegradable fabric, fillsens®! The collection brings the unique freshness of eucalyptus, warm smile of tranquility with timeless style to your lives.

Every piece in this collection has been kind to the Mother Earth at every stage of its production. We are committed to making high quality limited edition products that are never just thrown away. Through timeless design and long-lasting quality, our mission is to keep our cultural heritage alive and hand the elegance simplicity of traditional craftsmanship down to future generations.
